NOTICE

Dear Professors,

Greetings! Hope you are keeping good health during these days of lock-down.

We have already conducted one Online Workshop on the topic “Effective Online Teaching” for our college Staff Members on April 15, 2020. There was a very good response for the workshop. It was a grand success and all the participants (our Staff Members) well-appreciated this online workshop.

I'm very happy to inform you that the college is organising yet another Online Workshop on April 27, 2020 at 10:30 am on the same Topic. It is to give you this wonderful opportunity of learning a new tool of teaching through online mode. Whatever we learn through this course will be useful in our profession for the benefit of our students. It is an open invitation to all our faculty. I request you all to participate in this Online Workshop. Kindly register your name with Dr. B.Kannikairaj of Physics, who is co-ordinating this training, on or before April 26, 2020 Sunday by 12.30. pm.

Thank you.
